

Surgical Isolator

Bio-containment Isolator which allows best access and control to perform surgical or experimental procedures inside an isolator.

Flexibility:

Irrespective of the nature of your research, our dedication to tailored and individualized designs guarantees the seamless functionality of your equipment to perfectly align with your needs.

Dimensions and Specifics:

Performing surgery or special procedures which require a microscope, heat-platforms or any other electrical equipment to perform your procedures – this Isolator will allow you to perform these with the highest form of containment / protection. All enclosed and yet with all the equipment required contamination will be an issue of the past within this setup.

Dimensions (approx)

Overall: 200cm(L) x 90cm(W) x 160cm(H) +60cm height adjustable

Canopy: 195cm(L) x 85cm(W) x 75cm(H)

Ergonomic and Practical:

The possibility to attach any type of glove will enable you to choose ones with good dexterity for a delicate surgical procedure. The height adjustable frame will allow an ergonomic work position. Comfortable equipment to help you focus on your procedure.

